What Is To Be Canada's Destiny?

Shall it be that through the destruction of the Tariff as proposed by both Crerar and King, the development of Canada is to come under the domination of the United States, to be followed by gradual financial domination and as a consequence, political domination?

OR

Is Canada's destiny to be that of a great free nation within the British Empire group of Nations, developing her boundless resources of mine, river, water power, forest, and cultivating her millions upon millions of acres of arable land? Is her development to surpass that of any other nation?

Shall her manufacturing industries develop her minerals and raw materials into implements and goods for the benefit and comfort of her people and for foreign trade? Shall she become a self-contained nation within the Empire, her great railways interchanging, the products of factory and farm among her own people, and her ships sailing every sea?

Shall she maintain her integrity within the Empire and protect her farms and factories against unfair competition from foreign countries?

IF THIS IS TO BE CANADA'S DESTINY THEN CANADA NEEDS MEIGHEN.

On December 6th, Canada should once again protect her farms, her factories and her workmen against the unsound theory of Free Trade, and should hold fast to her reasonable Protective Tariff, her national entity and her British connection.

On December 6th Canada should declare with no uncertain voice that she will not tolerate the false trade theories of visionaries and group leaders, which tend toward her economic destruction, toward the separation of her people and the weakening of the ties that bind Canada to the British Empire.

On December 6th Canada should demonstrate unmistakably to the outside world her fixed determination to keep Canada for the Canadians.

On December 6th Canada's destiny is at stake.

THE ECONOMIC SITUATION

"The time has not yet come when the present situation does seem depressing. Profiteers' prices for grain, reflected in the general situation of the country, high coal bills, and in the cities, unemployment, make a somber picture.

The average man at present is like a sailor in a small boat in the trough of a big wave. He can't see the way out. But we will come out of the worst depression, probably earlier than we expect. It is mainly a question of adjustment following the war. The world is not overstocked with food or any other supplies, and if the exchange difficulty was removed, the improvement would be immediate. The best health of all countries are waiting on this problem.

There is also hope in the advent of a new parliament. The old method of government have proved inadequate to meet with the demands of the war that is ever growing more complex. The new ideas and deeds will have a chance of expression after the war.

of December. When the people take the interest in the Government of the country that they are doing now, we are reasonably sure of a good government.

But above all, it is for us as individuals to exercise the spirit of patriotism. The land and its resources are still here as they were a number of years ago, when we were indulging in golden dreams of immediate prosperity. We are ready in a better position now than we were then. We are living on our own resources instead of an borrowed money.

Individual development of resources, whether agricultural, mineral, or mental, is the way out.

Hardship is a relative term. Canada, for instance, has not had to go through the Belgium that has to go through the past seven years. But every person in Belgium has their shoulders to the wheel, and Belgium, ravaged and desolated only a few years ago, is now one of the happiest and most prosperous countries in the world. It is acting as good an example to us as it did throughout the war.

DISARMAMENT

The present conference on disarmament, sitting in Washington, is a hopeful sign of the times. It has resulted in good already in the agreement to reduce in battleships, but it should go a long way further.

It will be noted that the men who fought in the Great War are not military or navalists. The British Empire Service League, representing 7,000,000 organized ex-service men, has sent to Washington, through the president, Earl Haig, commander-in-chief of the British Empire Forces throughout the war, their wishes for disarmament. General Pershing, some time ago disarmed a regiment in the U.S. for a conscript army.

Canada, though, as represented by its present legislation, is apparently encouraging militarism through the development of the militia. The militia, as far as a two week's annual training is concerned, is a necessity. It is hardly likely the Government are propagating it with that object in view.

In Calgary, for every man in uniform before the war, you can see a dozen now. The majority of these are ex-service men. We should not treat as his an army as we had before the war, for the German menace is removed. Militarism must be discarded in Canada, as in everywhere else throughout the world. The world must get rid of the idea of war being a necessary evil. It cannot do so as long as the military spirit is flattered before the people.

AN AMERICAN SOLUTION FOR THE WESTERN TARIFF PROBLEM

Mr. Dingley, son of Mr. Dingley, of Dingley Tariff fame, in an interview with Miss Anne Latt, gives the following solution for the tariff problem as it affects Western Canada.

"The one sound of reconciliation between East and West, Manufacturer and Farmer, is to build your main factories in the heart of your farming community, to build your markets in your farming community, so that farmers' buying market is his selling market. We sell 50 per cent. of all our raw products at home. You must build up your markets in the same way."

Ottawa, Ont.—When the war broke out the number of automobiles in use in Canada was 67,015; today the number exceeds 1,000,000, and their value is estimated at $100,000,000. For the manufacture of automobiles, and the assembling of parts $25,000,000 is invested in Canadian plants which employ 15,000 hands.

price agreements. His audience, judging by the applause, was entirely with him in this. This viewpoint was here confirmed by Hon. Mr. Dewar, the Ontario Premier, when he said: "It is not the tariff, but the abuse of it that this country is objecting to."

Community Club Meets on Monday

A meeting of Strathmore Community Club will be held in the Memorial Hall on Monday evening, December 5, commencing at 6:30 p.m. with supper served by the G.W.C.A. Ladies Auxiliary.

The election of candidates for the Town and School Board will be discussed, and the various candidates are to be asked to attend and expound their views.
Other matters relating to the welfare of the town and district will also be taken up, and the election of officers for the year 1922 will also take place.
Everyone interested in the welfare of the Community is invited to attend this meeting. The Community club can be a very useful instrument for good if its meetings are attended.

Memorial Hall Open With Alf's Button

The first picture to be shown in the Strathmore War Memorial Hall is "Alf's Button," which is declared to be the best picture that has ever been shown in Canada, and drew packed houses at Calgary and the other theatres when shown there. The Grand Theatre, Calgary, had a waiting line for several days before the picture opened.

Mr. Donnemuth, who has taken a contract to show first-class pictures twice weekly at the Memorial Hall, is now getting his screen, booth, and other arrangements fixed up. Ladies will be invited by the Decca club in the hall, which is ideally adapted for pictures.
"Alf's Button" will be shown here on Wednesday evening, December 7.

Local Notings

OF LOCAL INTEREST
Readers are requested to send in items for this column not later than 12 o'clock Monday noon preceding day of publication. All local news items are welcomed by the Standard. Phone 17 or 64.

Keep the date in mind, Saturday, December 2nd, at 2 p.m. in the Opera House, the Anglian Grand Inaugural and Tea, with a share from 9 to 11.45 59 cents. 20-11-2

If the Government's methods of doing business are so unorthodox, its methods of disseminating information regarding polling areas, return charges, etc. it is time for a re-consideration. At the time this paper went to press this information was not forward, and when it is forwarded it will probably be forwarded to one or two telephone poles in the district. In the recent provincial election the polling places, etc. were well advertised, but in the present instance numerous individuals do not know yet whether they are entitled to vote.

A dance will be held at Strathmore Thursday, December 7. Also country's dance meetings in this section. Grandstand 11.00, Ladies 50c. 20-11-2

Coming! When Smith stepped that.

"Alf's Button" to be produced in the Memorial Hall, Strathmore, on Wednesday evening, the opening picture, is not to be confused with "Alf's Button." The former is not a C.P. production, having been manufactured in the British Isles.

A large granite marker was hauled into town last week to form a base for the bronze memorial tablet which is to be erected in front of the Memorial Hall. The stone is due to Mr. Skelton for his efforts in this matter. He is also arranging for the planting of a number of large evergreens in front of the hall, and the hedges have been dug to some of these, and they will probably be moved in shortly.

Step in and see Smith step out. Donations from kind friends to the Anglian Bazaar to be held on Saturday, next, December 2nd, include a fine turkey, a real English plum pudding, and an old-time fruit cake, practically your whole Xmas feast prepared, so why bother when these can be had? The fish pond will hold delightful surprises. 20-11-2

Watch Smith Step Out. The smoker tournament at the Hub Billiard Parlors is going strong, with a large number of entrants and much excitement, and will conclude sometime this week. The betting after has been trimmed and polished during the past week, and are now in a shape for the winter. The new reliable John Johnson is on the job as pianist again, and the bowling enthusiasts are looking forward to a good season of the popular winter sport and exercise. Roland Hill, general proprietor of the Hub, is to be commended on the high standard on which his establishment is, and always has been conducted. It is one of Strathmore's greatest assets, and provides recreation for young and old alike.

Strathmore school children are invited to produce "Mother Goose" in the Memorial Hall on December 22nd. Receipts to be devoted towards the expense of a permanent tablet at the Memorial Hall. Other schools throughout the district are being approached to help in this direction.

Strathmore Skating Rink is now nearly ready for business, though the week-end chink yet it back some what. Considerable voluntary help has been given in the making of this rink, which will be a full-sized hockey rink.

Mr. Jas. Collier, secretary of the Western Canada Irrigation Convention, has been appointed secretary of the Southern Alberta Survey Board.

The high cost of living is being met by the King Edward Hotel's reduction of rates for board and room, through arrangement with the King Edward Hotel, to pre-war level. The falls will be found in our advertising column.

The use of Santa Claus himself, to Strathmore, will be an unusual treat for all, especially the children. See particulars on back page. 20-11-2

William Irvine and Women's Institute

The following article "What of the Institute?" appeared in the Women's Farmer and Weekly Alberta, Calgary, on Monday, November 26th. It was written by William Irvine, Labor-Farmer candidate at the last Calgary Convention.

WHAT OF THE INSTITUTE?
The Women's Institute in Alberta is a very different thing, but up to the last provincial election it was a very different thing, as a political machine. It received financial assistance from the public treasury, which is a very deplorable fact, as it is only has a tendency to corrupt the Women's Institute, but it is very unfair to the other women's organizations in the province.

The C.F.W.A. finances itself. Is it fair that the C.F.W.A. women should be taxed to keep up the Women's Institute? Certainly not. This should be remedied at once.

We understand that the Stewart government appropriated $100,000 to the Women's Institute at the last session of parliament, and when the farmers came into office they found that all this had been spent, although only a few months of the year that was supposed to be covered in the appropriation had passed.

Here is something for the farmers' government to be at it at first session. The government ought to be at the Women's Institute should be cut off absolutely.

If there is any need for the Women's Institute as there may well be, it should stand on its own feet. It will be a healthier and more honorable institution when it finances itself and aids its own business, than it is by being subsidized by a government as this institution.

We who have been members of the Women's Institute since its inception, know this statement that the Institute has been used as a political machine, to be absolutely a falsehood, and challenge Mr. Irvine to produce a particle of evidence in proof of this accusation.

Mr. Irvine is evidently not aware that the Women's Institute is not an organization for a favored few, but is the medium through which the State carries on its household economies and community extension work to all the women of this province, women of the cities, towns, villages and rural communities. Right here, may I inform Mr. Irvine, of the last membership of 15,000, fully 10,000 are women living on farms and from 8,000 to 9,000 are members of the C.F.W.A.

The statement made that all the grant voted by the Stewart government was spent before the Farmer govern-

Hard Times Dance

An enjoyable and successful Hard Times dance was held in the Memorial Hall on Friday evening, under the auspices of Strathmore G.W.C.A. music, provided by Hirt's orchestra, was first-class. Supper was provided by the Ladies Auxiliary G.W.C.A., and put up in nice style.

Comparatively few of the dancers were new to Hard Times dances, because those who did there were some very stirring dancers. The prize winners were as follows: Ladies: 1st Mrs. S. Stevenson, 2nd, Mrs. P. Davis, 3rd, 1st John Robertson, 2nd, S. Stevenson.

ment came into power, is also untrue, as we still learn that the work is being carried on without an extra appropriation, being made. I have inquired and been informed that up to date it has not been necessary for the institute branch to apply for an overdraft.

It is well that Mr. Irvine has made clear his position toward women's extension work before appealing to the women of the province for support.

CANADIAN ROCKIES RESORT KEEPS OPEN HOUSE ALL YEAR

Barff, the Beautiful, is rapidly becoming an all-the-year-round resort. The summer months during which its palatial hotels are open, will soon be the leading season, with Water Curens women so numerous, but the balance of the year has no corresponding number of visitors enjoying at the picturesque location that looks the town's own, with Main street.

Autumn among the mountains that encircle Barff, is a season of pure joy. There is a tang in the air and the hoary giants wear their cloaks of mist more frequently, but the crisp coolness invites to more strenuous exercise in the corn.

When the snow falls, a trip to Lake Louise on skis or snowshoes permits a tête-à-tête with the Peak of the Rockies. The winter sports are available if skidding is desired.

With the departure of the throngs of summer guests, the old houses which are protected in Rocky Mt. Park in which Barff is located, become more venturesome and it is common sight to see deer grazing along Main street.

The Government maintains parks open all winter and late visitors enjoy the "cold" sensation of snow. The Government also provides a good deal of warm water from Barff's own hot baths, while the bathers are wrapped in furs.

There is always plenty of hotel accommodation at Barff and travellers will find a welcome at Barff a pleasant interlude in trans-continental sojourns. This is particularly true during Winter Carnival days when tourists and holiday-makers find Barff a most interesting place.
